

Greetings!

Matthew 4:11

Then the devil leaveth him; and behold, angels came and ministered unto him.

Last Friday morning I was at Stonecrest Hospital with my Mom who had suffered a seizure earlier in the week. She was not doing well and it was very emotional for me to see her in that condition. I could not hold back the tears and for several hours I could not talk to the doctor or nurses without breaking down in tears.

This was very unusual and embarrassing to me. I called my wife, Kathy and asked her to pray for me. A few minutes later Kathy and her friend were there with me.

A few minutes after they left my two cousins and my aunt came in and we all cried together. Two more of my cousins joined us and my son showed up telling me he had taken the rest of the day off. Then two of my friends came by to visit Mom on their lunch break.

It was amazing how much better I felt and after everyone had gone I thanked the Lord for sending those visitors. I thought about the verse above and realized that my Heavenly Father had sent me some ministering angels.

All my angels were flesh and blood but they were angels just the same. Isn't our loving Heavenly Father good to us.

Mom is doing better and we have moved her to the Mayfield Rehab Center in Smyrna.

Please pray for her.

Brother Carl

We praise the Lord for the three souls that were saved Sunday.

Luke 15:7

I say unto you, that even so there shall be joy in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, [more] than over ninety and nine righteous persons, who need no repentance.

March to Church in March

Help your team march to church by being faithful to attend church this Sunday and by bringing a visitor with you. There will be 5 miles marched for attendance and 10 miles marched for each visitor.

LifeKIDS!

Join the Society of Superheroes as they discover what it takes to be a Bible hero. They search the Bible looking for tips from the biggies like Moses, Paul, David, and Saul. They are surprised to find the Bible full of lesser-known heroes that pleased God by serving Him-even though they may not be famous. God has called you to super serve Him. God has given you the super skills, super strength, and super smarts to complete the mission He has for you!

Family Game Night

Family Game Night at Brother Carl's house on Friday, March 6th at 7:00 p.m.
