Dear Stephen,

Jeremiah 5:5

I will get me unto the great men, and will speak unto them; for they have known the way of the LORD, [and] the judgment of their God:

Jeremiah is a young, reluctant prophet who is just beginning his ministry. He makes a wise choice by going to the great men who knew the way of the Lord.

So much of our Christian life is determined by those early influential years. When I was a very young preacher boy I became fascinated by some of the great old preachers. I loved to read the biographies of these amazing men of God.

It is sad to me that many of our people in church today know little about these Godly men who went before us.

I asked one young preacher if he had read any about Charles Spurgeon, he replied, "Why would I read about a man who lived over a hundred years ago, I want to be relevant to the world today."

In our quest for relevance let us not forget to seek the wisdom of those who went before us

Let me encourage you to read about great men who knew the way of the Lord.

Pastor Carl
