

Greetings,

When God gives the treasured gift of a little child to be directed and molded. How good God was to entrust that responsibility to a mother. Yet how quickly the days go by. These snuggling little bundles seemingly overnight grow into young men and women. Almost forgotten are the long, anxious nights of watching over sick ones, the endless tasks of washing dirty faces, changing diapers, kissing boo boos and the prayerful years of waiting for their salvation. But what peace and joy to lay your head on the pillow and know that her treasured ones are safe in the fold. We want to give the highest tribute to all mothers, especially those true to the standards set forth in the Bible.

Thank you!

Pastor Carl
