The Modern Church - A Non-Prophet Organization

Elisha asked, "Where is the Lord God of Elijah?" I have another question for today, "Where are the Elijahs of the Lord God?" Never has there been a greater need for sin hating, devil fighting, bible preaching, Christ honoring prophets of God.

I tell the parents at our church that I am praying for every little boy to grow up and be a prophet for God. Some may ask, "Don't we need some to be doctors and lawyers?" My answer is, "We don't need any more lawyers and we can let the Presbyterians make the doctors."

Our pulpits have become coward stands. Pastors are afraid to offend some of the people so they trim their message to be politically correct. They must not rock the boat or the board may cut their salary. They must tickle ears so the people will come back.

The subject of sin is rarely mentioned in our pulpits and death is not talked about much less the second death. A preacher friend of mine was rebuked recently by some of his members for preaching on the Second Coming of Christ. He was told not to be so negative because the people came to be "Lifted Up". This is the result of a sick and apostate church where the only message is peace, love, and unity.

Oh God raise up some prophets.
